Day 1: Arrive in Beijing

Fly to Beijing. On arrival, you will be met by your guide and will transfer to the hotel. Note: Some flights may depart the night before.

Day 2: Beijing (B, L, D)

Beijing served as the capital of five dynasties over a period of 800 years. Today, visit Tiananmen Square, the second largest public square in the world, and the Forbidden City, the Chinese imperial palace from the Ming to Qing dynasty. Your welcome banquet includes the local delicacy, Peking Roast Duck.

Day 3: Beijing (B, L, D)

Today's highlight is an excursion to the majestic Great Wall at Juyong Pass, the most famous image of China, and a chance to climb a portion of this 3,700-mile marvel. You will also visit one of the largest jade exhibitions in Asia en-route. After lunch, see skilled artisans at work at a cloisonné factory. Tonight, you can choose to attend an optional large scale dramatic musical, The Golden Mask Dynasty ($75).

Day 4: Beijing (B, L)

Tour the exquisite Summer Palace, the largest preserved ancient garden in China and a former summer resort for emperors. Next, visit the Panda House at Beijing Zoo to see China's adorable national treasure – the Giant Panda. Then visit a Chinese herbal institute to learn about traditional Chinese medicine which has existed for thousands of years, as you enjoy a rejuvenating foot massage. Later, you can join an optional Hutong Life Tour ($70), and cap off the day by enjoying an authentic Old Beijing Hotpot Dinner ($55).

Day 5: Beijing ✈️ Pyongyang (B)

Enjoy the morning at leisure before you transfer to the airport for your direct flight to Pyongyang. On arrival, you will be warmly greeted at the airport by your tour guide and transferred to your hotel.

Day 6: Pyongyang (B, L, D)

After breakfast, you will be transferred to experience the Pyongyang Metro (6 stops), which is the deepest metro system in the world. The designs of the main stations are stunning, and particularly notable for their superb lighting and mosaics. Then you will visit the Arch of Triumph. This massive archway is commemorating the liberation of Korea from Japanese colonial rule. Head to Juche Tower. You can choose to visit the Juche Tower Observation Deck ($10, Note: pre-paid in Australia $10, or payable on site RMB50 or equivalent. Only RMB, EUR and USD are acceptable on site). Follow by a visit to the Party Foundation Monument, the iconic structure featuring the hammer, sickle, writing brush which make up the emblem of the Worker's Party of Korea and represent workers, farmers, and intellectuals.

Later, you can join an upgrade optional for your lunch: Picnic Lunch in Ryongak-San ($35).

Follow by the Party Foundation Monument, the iconic structure featuring the hammer, sickle, writing brush which make up the emblem of the Worker's Party of Korea and represent workers, farmers, and intellectuals. After lunch, you will visit Mangyongdae Native House, the birthplace and childhood home of President Kim Il Sung. Next, visit the Pyongyang Shooting Range, where DPRK's Olympic shooters practice with sports weapons (you may try shooting if you like, safety regulations apply). Then, you will have a Pyongyang Schoolchildren's Palace tour and performance. This is the first schoolchildren's palace in the DPRK and centre of extracurricular excellence.

Day 7: Pyongyang 🚗 Kaesong 🚗 Pyongyang (B, L, D)

After breakfast travel to Kaesong, the home to the famous longevity elixir Kaesong Koryo Insam, which is the best ginseng in Far East Asia. Then visit the Panmunjom (DMZ village), located in the middle of the 4 km wide Demilitarised Zone, and Panmunjom is the site of the signing of the 1953 armistice at the end of the Korean War. This is the only location where visitors can directly and photograph soldiers from both sides. Then visit the Kaesong Koryo Museum and Stamp shop, and have a Traditional Korean Royal Lunch, which is a set serving 11 dishes in small brass bowls. After lunch, you will have a guided walking tour through the ancient Kaesong city. Kaesong was the capital of Koryo Dynasty (918-1392). It was regarded as the 'Open City' or 'Open Gate', and a major land and seaport along the ancient Silk Road. Proceed to a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Tomb of King Kongmin, the 31st king of the Koryo Dynasty, a talented statesman and prolific painter, and his Mongolian wife set at the end of a picturesque valley. Then transfer back to Pyongyang.
